Natural Family Planning Awareness Week July 25-31

Natural Family Planning (NFP) Awareness Week celebrates the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) which articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality, conjugal love and responsible parenthood. Couples who live their vocation according to this teaching reap many benefits. These benefits include: better communication between spouses; deeper understanding of each other's bodies and consequent growth in respect and awe of God's gift of fertility; growth in patience and emotional maturity; growth in understanding of the supreme gift of children; and growth in holiness as they seek to place God as the head of the household. If you would like to learn more about NFP and how it can benefit your marriage, contact Allison Dooley, Diocese of Raleigh Natural Family Planning Coordinator, at nfp@raldioc.org.

1) Those who have never been baptized and would like to investigate what the Catholic faith is all about. After that they may choose to continue towards full membership.

2) Those who have been baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition and would like to come and learn what the Catholic community believes and see if they would like to belong.

3) Catholics who were baptized but never brought up in the faith and would like to get back to their roots and prepare themselves for the other sacraments of initiation: Eucharist and Confirmation.

DETALLES, DETALLES Y MÁS DETALLES . . .

Pobre Marta. Se queja ante Jesús de que su hermana la ha dejado sola con todo el trabajo y le pide que le diga a María que la ayude. Marta es la santa patrona de las amas de casa, los sirvientes, meseros y cocineros. Si eres una mamá o un papá que se queda en casa a cuidar de los hijos, o si cuidas de un enfermo o trabajas en un restaurante sabes bien lo que es estar en un constante ir y venir. Todavía es peor si tienes más personas que están bajo tu cuidado. En los tiempos de Jesús era algo casi inaudito que una mujer se sentara a escuchar como discípula en vez de ocuparse de la limpieza y de preparar la comida, por eso es comprensible la irritación de Marta. Pero considera lo que le dice Jesús: “Marta, Marta, muchas cosas te preocupan y te inquietan” (Lucas 10:41). Es una suave reprimenda. “La mejor parte” que escogió María—sentarse a los pies del Maestro—no hace a María superior a su hermana, más bien demuestra que esta última ve la importancia de escuchar al Señor cuando todavía está entre ellas. Marta sabe quién es Jesús. Vemos que en otro evangelio ella lo reconoce como el Mesías (Juan 11:27), siendo ella la única persona, además de Pedro, de decir eso directamente. Aquí, en el relato de hoy, ella se ve un tanto perdida entre los detalles de ser una buena anfitriona. Aquí también hay un paralelo con nuestra vida como iglesia; por ejemplo, cuando nos quejamos de cómo se celebró la Eucaristía: el coro estuvo muy alto, el padre dio una homilía muy larga, los servidores del altar no deben ponerse zapatos tenis para servir, la gente habla mucho antes de la Misa, etcétera, etcétera. Cuando estos detalles interrumpen y distraen nuestra atención, olvidándonos de porqué estamos aquí, nos hemos convertido en Martas. Estamos aquí para ser como María, con nuestra atención puesta del todo en el Señor y nuestro corazón en una profunda acción de gracias.
