SENIOR SOCIAL DINNER:

There will not be a Senior Social Dinner in December. We started this event to be a blessing to the seniors of Infant of Prague Parish. We wanted to enjoy a meal and to get to know each other and fellowship. It has come to our attention that tickets were sold or given to members of the community. Please remember we are not professional; we are seniors trying to serve seniors. This event is for our church Seniors only. The only exception is if members need a driver who does not belong to the church. Also our senior volunteers were a bit stressed with so many request for take outs. As I mentioned above, the purpose of this event is for us to get together, so in the future take out request will be honored for shut in members only. We are volunteers who love to serve and are happy to serve you. Please remember we are learning as we go and ask you to help us to make this a success. See you in January.
